

Directions to The Canadian Museum of Making (Wild Buffalo Ranching)

Please note that the museum has a camera surveillance system so by visiting, you are consenting to be filmed while on premises.

- Take highway 1A west through Cochrane toward Ghost Lake (Hwy that connects to Crowchild Trail in Calgary).
- After bridge over Ghost Lake, continue 4.3 km further west.
- Turn right on Jamieson Road (there is a sign and speed drops to 80 km/hr just before it).
- Proceed north on Jamieson Road for 4.2 kms to Courville Road and turn right. There is a Fire Hall on the corner.
- In 200 m, take the first right into the driveway for Wild Buffalo Ranching. (Parking on the gravel area at the back along the fence. See instructions to the right.)

Some Museum Information:

1. The museum is not mobility device accessible as there are several sets of stairs so guests will unfortunately not be permitted in the upper museum due to safety concerns.
2. Photography is permitted.
3. These exhibits are not as appropriate for young children as there are quite a few sharp edges. Please ensure you are supervising children at all times.
4. If you wish to donate to the Museum to help cover expenses, cheques can be made out to 'The Canadian Museum of Making' or donations can be made from our website www.museumofmaking.org.
